

()

The tragedy of floods devastates the home owners who face cleaning up the mess left behind the raging waters. would like you to know about the safe and effective methods for cleaning and repair if you are faced with flood damage.

Before beginning cleaning and repairing your home, be sure that there is no further danger of flood crests. Inspect the house from the outside to assure no further danger of flood crests. When the danger has passed, you can begin the cleanup process.

Cleaning up after any disaster is never easy or fast, but it can be safe and effective. Further tips on cleaning can be obtained at www.nahb.org or by contacting .