

Housing Affordability Must Be Addressed Locally and Nationally

It's harder than ever for American families to find a home that meets their needs at a price they can afford. Policymakers at all levels of government are looking for ways to provide more affordable homeownership and rental housing opportunities. In response, the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) is offering a 10-point plan with potential policy solutions that can be implemented at the local, state and federal levels to address the root of the problem – the impediments to increasing the nation's housing supply.

Below you will find a brief look at economic markers, as well as district residents' responses to surveys on important housing topics.

MAY 2024

"We need to create more affordable housing options for moderate-income households, younger households and first-time home buyers."

Preserving current homeowners' ability to restrict new housing development near their neighborhoods

19%

Creating more medium-density housing that is affordable to moderate-income households, younger households and first-time home buyers

58%

Don't know/no opinion

23%

0 10 20 30 40 50 60

D ☐ I am a person who is very confident in my abilities.

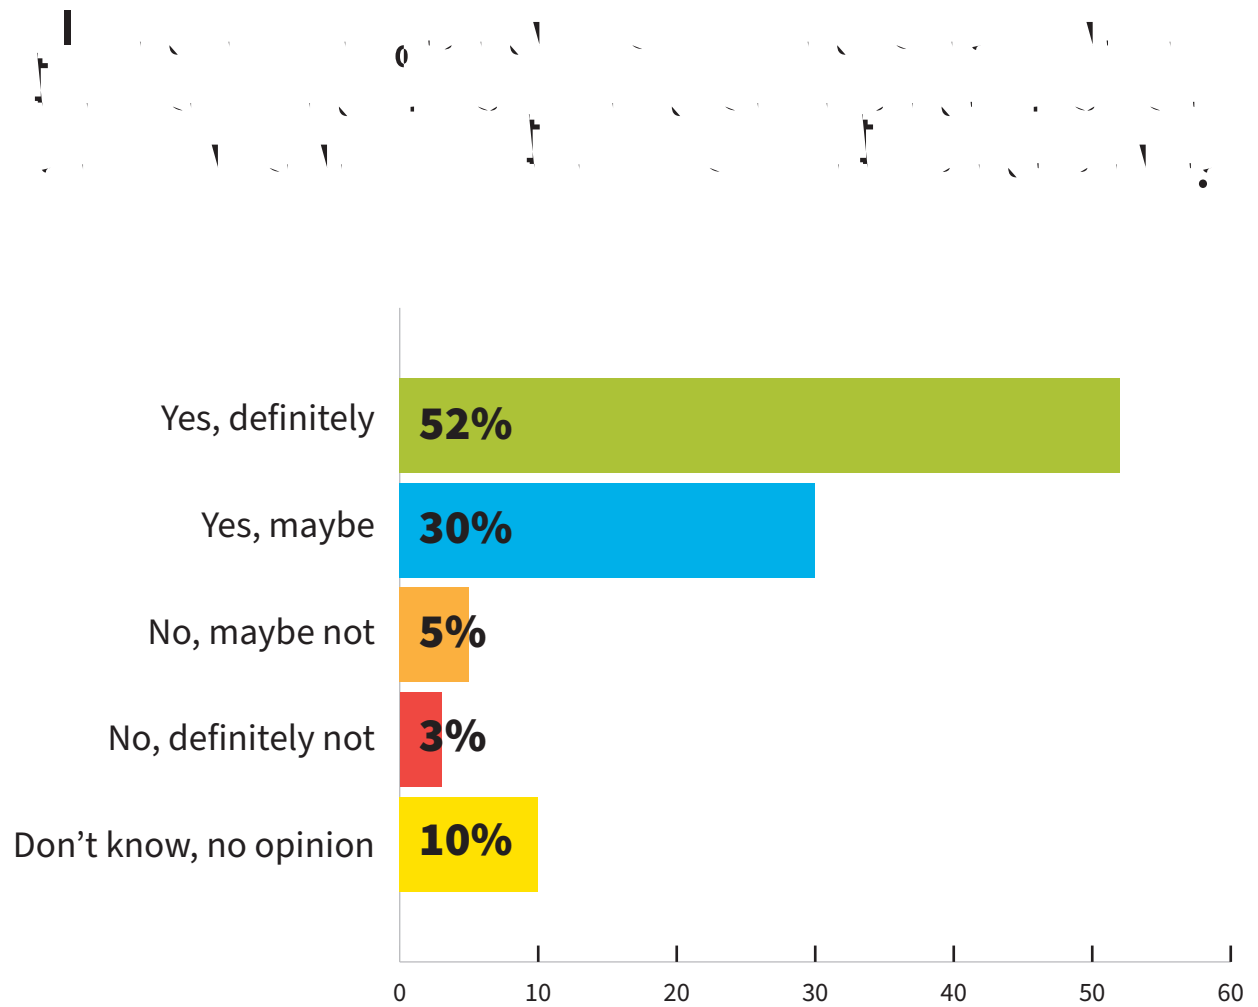

Strongly agree

Somewhat agree

Somewhat disagree

Strongly disagree

Don't know/No opinion

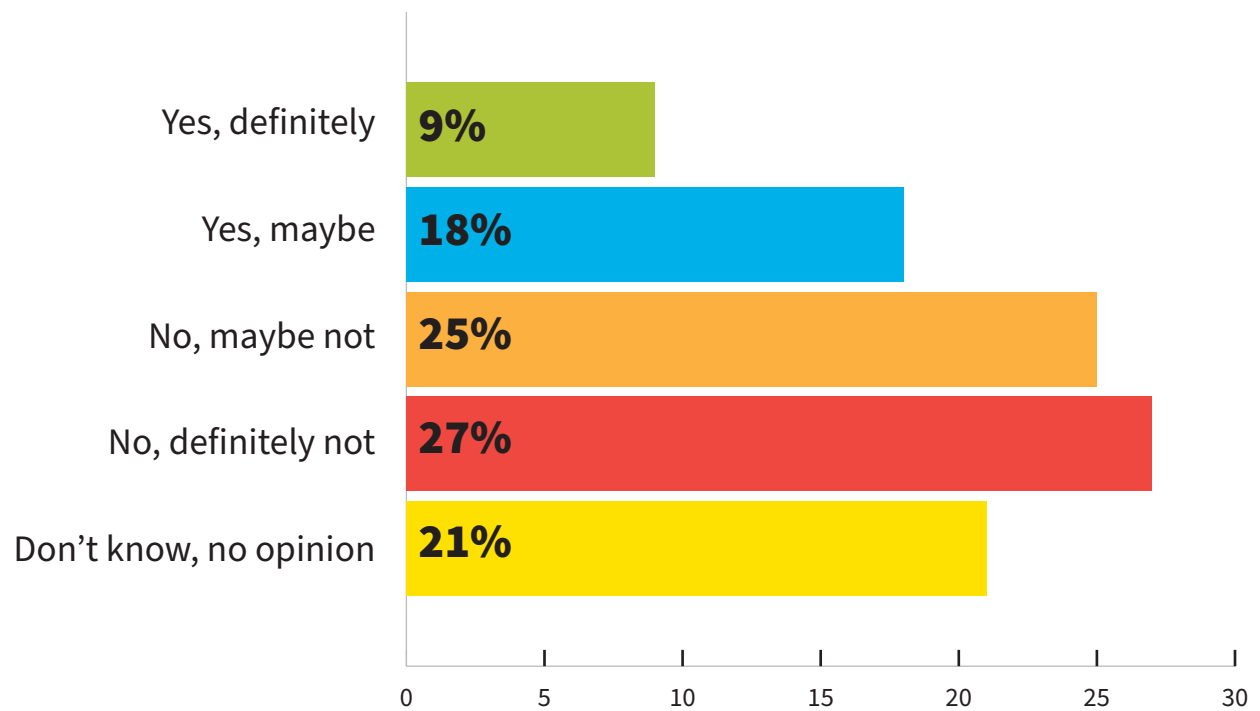

Don't know, no opinion

Yes, definitely

Yes, maybe

No, maybe not

No, definitely not

Do you agree or disagree that the construction industry depends on the federal government?

