It's harder than ever for American families to find a home that meets their needs at a price they can a ord. Policymakers at all levels of government are looking for ways to provide more a ordable homeownership and rental housing opportunities. In response, the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) is o ering a 10-point plan with potential policy solutions that can be implemented at the local, state and federal levels to address the root of the problem – the impediments to increasing the nation's housing supply.

Below you will find a brief look at economic markers, as well as district residents' responses to surveys on important housing topics.
