

Georgia Congressional District 4

Housing Affordability Must Be Addressed Locally and Nationally

It's harder than ever for American families to find a home that meets their needs at a price they can afford. Policymakers at all levels of government are looking for ways to provide more affordable homeownership and rental housing opportunities. In response, the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) is offering a point plan with potential policy solutions that can be implemented at the local, state, and federal levels to address the root of the problem—the impediments to increasing the nation's housing supply.

Below, you will find a brief look at economic markers, as well as district residents' responses to surveys on important housing topics.

MAY

When it comes to housing issues, which of the following is more important to you personally?

Preserving current homeowners' ability to restrict new housing development near their neighborhoods

20%

Creating more medium density housing that is affordable to moderate income households, younger households and first time home buyers

59%

Don't know/no opinion

21%

POLLING QUESTION 2 | Georgia Congressional District 4

Do you agree or disagree that there is a housing affordability crisis where you live?

In your opinion, should city and county officials do

Yes definitel

Yes ma be

No ma be not

No definitel not

Don t know no opinion

Do you agree or disagree with the following statement:
Policymakers should consider the impacts of new laws