

Housing Affordability Must Be Addressed Locally and Nationally

It's harder than ever for American families to find a home that meets their needs at a price they can afford. Policymakers at all levels of government are looking for ways to provide more affordable homeownership and rental housing opportunities. In response, the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) is offering a 10-point plan with potential policy solutions that can be implemented at the local, state and federal levels to address the root of the problem – the impediments to increasing the nation's housing supply.

Below you will find a brief look at economic markers, as well as district residents' responses to surveys on important housing topics.

MAY 2024

POLLING QUESTION

Georgia Congressional District

Which is the highest priority for you?

Preserving current homeowners' ability to restrict new housing development near their neighborhoods

22%

Creating more medium-density housing that is affordable to moderate-income households, younger households and first-time home buyers

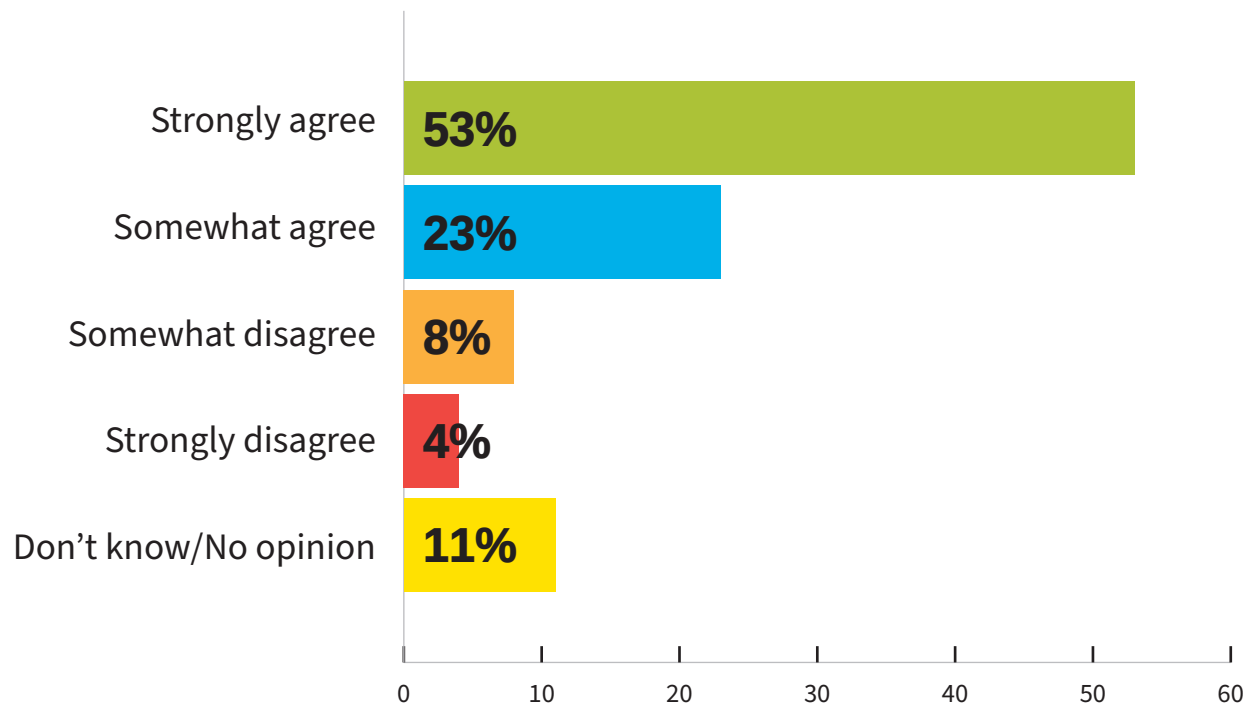

56%

Don't know/no opinion

22%

0 10 20 30 40 50 60

Do you agree or disagree that the home improvement industry is a deceptive practice?

POLLING QUESTION

Georgia Congressional District

Is it likely that the federal government will pass a law that would require all states to allow same-sex marriage?

Yes, definitely

Yes, maybe

No, maybe not

No, definitely not

Don't know, no opinion

POLLING QUESTION

Georgia College and State University

Do you think the Georgia College and State University should add a new building to the campus?

