

Housing Affordability Must Be Addressed Locally and Nationally

Local and national leaders must work together to address the housing affordability crisis. The National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) has been a vocal advocate for policies that promote affordable housing. The organization has been instrumental in shaping federal housing policy and has been a key player in the development of the National Housing Act of 1937. The NAHB has also been a leading voice in the fight against the Affordable Care Act, which it claims will undermine the housing market.
