Pennsylvania Congressional District 3

It's harder than ever for American families to find a home that meets their needs at a price they can a ord. Policymakers at all levels of government are looking for ways to provide more a ordable homeownership and rental housing opportunities. In response, the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) is o ering a 10-point plan with potential policy solutions that can be implemented at the local, state and federal levels to address the root of the problem – the impediments to increasing the nation's housing supply.

Below you will find a brief look at economic markers, as well as district residents' responses to surveys on important housing topics.

MAY 2024

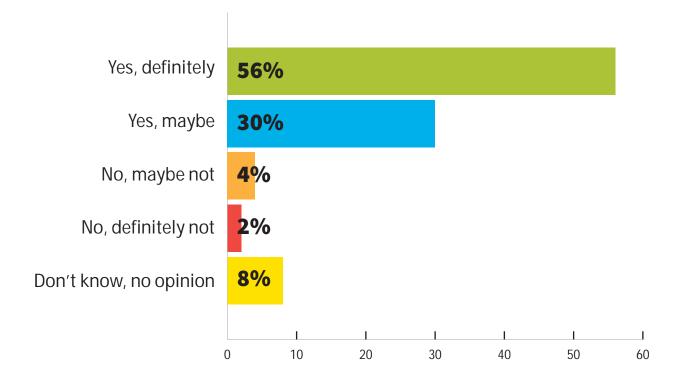

Preserving current homeowners' ability

Strongly agree

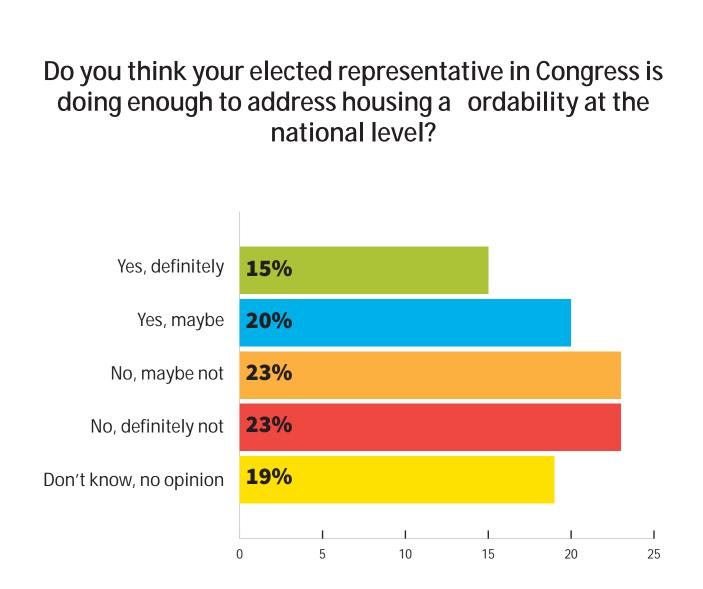

Somewhat agree

Somewhat disagree

In your opinion, should city and county o icials do more to encourage the production of housing that is a ordable to low- and moderate-income households?

Do you agree or disagree with the following statement: Policymakers should consider the impacts of new laws and regulations on housing a ordability.

