

Texas Congressional District 33

Housing Affordability Must Be Addressed Locally and Nationally

It's harder than ever for American families to find a home that meets their needs at a price they can afford. Policymakers at all levels of government are looking for ways to provide more affordable homeownership and rental housing opportunities. In response, the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) is offering a point plan with potential policy solutions that can be implemented at the local, state, and federal levels to address the root of the problem—the impediments to increasing the nation's housing supply.

Economic Snapshot of Texas Congressional District 33

Below you will find a brief look at economic markers as well as district residents' responses to surveys on important housing topics.

MAY

When it comes to housing issues, which of the following is more important to you personally?

Do you agree or disagree that there is a housing affordability crisis where you live?

POLLING QUESTION 3 | Texas Congressional District 33

Yes definitel

Yes ma be

No ma be not

No definitel not

Don t know no opinion

Do you think your elected representative in Congress is doing enough to address housing affordability at the national level?

Do you agree or disagree with the following statement:
Policymakers should consider the impacts of new laws and regulations on housing affordability.

