Housing Affordability Must Be Addressed Locally and Nationally

“Housing is a basic need, and it is a right. It is a right that is being denied to millions of people across the United States. As a result, many people are living in substandard housing, and they are paying too much for it. This is a crisis that must be addressed, and it must be addressed now. We need to take action to ensure that everyone has access to safe, affordable housing. We need to invest in affordable housing, and we need to protect tenants from eviction and rent gouging. We need to make sure that housing is a right, not a privilege. We need to make sure that everyone has a place to call home.”
