

What was the best piece of advice you received in your career?

The best advice I received was that you can't please everyone. Working in a ~~micro~~ ^{focused} environment